

2013 ANNUAL REPORT

The Henderson Community Foundation is CHANGING Henderson and Southern Nevada for the BETTER. Since its inception HCF has awarded over $47,000 in grants, including a $5,000 grant to SAFE House this year. And, in 2013, here's just a glance of our endeavors to fulfill our mission.

Why give to HCF?

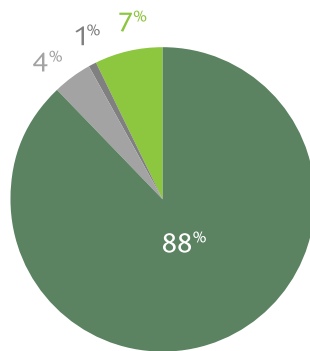

Henderson Community Foundation provides donors of both modest and substantial means with a number of avenues to plant the seeds of philanthropy within our community. Whether you choose to support HCF by contributing to our Community Opportunities Fund, name your own fund or provide a lasting legacy through an endowment, we provide a multitude of valuable services that best address your needs.

HCF in the Community Highlights

DR. BOWER HEALTHCARE CENTER:

Held a fundraiser, Taste of Henderson, in coordination with the Henderson Chamber of Commerce in April, raising $6,000 and held the La Buda Golf Classic this fall raising $10,000.

LINDSAY BENNETT MEMORIAL:

The first Lindsay Bennett Memorial Scholarship at UNLV was awarded this past spring. The fourth "Follow Your Bliss" Scholarship was awarded to a Coronado HS senior.

APPLE PARTNERSHIP:

The annual Celebration of Reading event winners were awarded checks for $7,000, $1,000 and $500: Vanderberg ES average of 64.88 hours per student, Dooley ES with 62.07 hours, and Twitchell ES with 45.95 hours.

SM@RTCONNECTIONS:

This year, we welcomed a new fund that is providing critical education to parents and students on living in a cyber-connected world (i.e. Internet safety, sex-tortion: aka sexting extortion, etc.).

KEEP THE MUSIC ALIVE:

On May 29th the fund volunteers presented 36 new instruments costing $14,200, and another 20 gently-used instruments, estimated to cost $10,000, to Brown JHS' band program.
