The Henderson Community Foundation was formed with the mission, "to provide resources and support to improve the health, education, and quality of life in the Henderson community." This mission is the core of our organization and continues to drive our every action. Having this focused mission gives our board the guidance as we grow in greater support of our community. In 2010, those who lived learned, worked, and played in the City of Henderson continued to show their support for this great “community.” I am amazed and thankful for so many supporters in Henderson and Southern Nevada as they show their passion and commitment by contributing to our unique community.

This has been a tough year financially for a variety of individuals and organizations and thus we continue to follow our sustainability plan to ensure that the Henderson Community Foundation will be here serving the community for many years to come. Just like everyone else in our community, we are finding ways to streamline our operation to make the most efficient use of community resources.

Thanks to many generous contributors, the Henderson Community Foundation continues to have much to celebrate! In 2010, the Henderson Community Foundation:

- Established and/or enhanced the following community partnerships: APPLE Partnership; At-Risk Education Program; At-Risk Literacy Fund; Carol and Joel Bower Basic High School Health Care Center; Friends of Henderson CSI; Friends of Henderson Parks & Recreation; Friends of HPD SWAT; Henderson Animal Control; Henderson Coordinated Community Response Fund; Henderson Hospice and Adult Daycare; Henderson Libraries; Henderson Military Families Assistance; Henderson Police Honor Guard; Henderson Space and Science Center; High School Leadership Fund, Levi Strauss Community Fund; the Lindsay Bennett Memorial; NAIOP Casey Jones Fund; Nevada Neuroscience; Nevada State College Annual Fund; Partners with HPD Community Relations; Partners with HPD K-9; and the O'Callaghan/Walker Scholarship funds;
- Continued to hold monthly Board of Trustee meetings;
- Expanded our Donor Advised funds to provide additional donor support in our community;
- Continued membership in the National Council on Foundations and look to our future for obtaining “standards” accreditation; and,
- Thankfully received generous private and corporate donations to support a variety of causes.
President’s Message

When the Henderson Community Foundation was created in 2002, its founders dreamed of building a legacy of philanthropy for Henderson. Thanks to many, that vision continues to grow even beyond our loftiest of dreams. I'd like to extend my heartfelt and continued appreciation to our 2010 Board of Trustee Members: David Grant, Shauna Hughes, Bob Kasner, Rich Manley, Debra March, Colleen O'Callaghan-Miele, Andrea Primo, Lisa Sich, and Phil Speight. It continues to be an honor to serve on this board since its inception and a greater honor to serve as your President and Chairman.

We continue to embrace our Vision Statement, “The Henderson Community Foundation will lead Henderson’s evolution into becoming the most compassionate community in America.” We believe we have a very unique opportunity to teach philanthropy within our community both to our current generation and to our children. In these challenging times, we feel this is our obligation and welcome you to contribute in your own way.

The Henderson Community Foundation was created to help ensure that the legacy of philanthropy will continue to help shape and benefit the Henderson and Southern Nevada community forever. For those of you who love this great community, whether you were born here or found success and happiness here, we thank you for your generosity and invite you to participate. Let's all work together to support those in need within our great community.

On behalf of our Board of Trustees and all those who contribute to our unique organization, I thank you for your past and continued support.

What is a Community Foundation?

The concept of a community foundation is as simple as it is brilliant. A community foundation empowers and strengthens the resources already within the community providing an easy and effective vehicle for people to achieve their charitable dream.

Community foundations maximize a donor’s gift through cutting-edge planned giving and sound, pooled investing, all while keeping a finger on the pulse of the community. They solve problems with high impact and thoughtful philanthropy, opening the door for people to come together to address pressing issues, share creative ideas and develop innovative programs.

In short, community foundations build the community they serve by connecting people and resources to build a vision for a better tomorrow.

What is Henderson Community Foundation?

Because community foundations reflect the changing nature of their communities, they are often as different from one another as the communities in which they exist. The mission or focus of a community foundation will change depending upon its philosophy, stage of growth and size of the organization.

Established in 2002, founding board members of HCF consisted of past graduates of Leadership Henderson, a program of the Henderson Chamber of Commerce Foundation, that educates and empowers civic-minded professionals so they are able to build and maintain a strong network of effective community leaders.

HCF prides itself in the value it places on every member of the community - regardless of socio-economic status, background or position. Whether you are a Henderson resident who wants to help someone in need, a person of means who wants to leave a lasting legacy, or represent a nonprofit in need of financial support, HCF values you and the contribution you are making to our community.

- Vision
  To lead Henderson’s evolution into becoming the most compassionate community in America.

- Mission
  To provide resources and support to improve the health, education and quality of life in the community.

- Core Values
  We value integrity, compassion, accountability, knowledge, and commitment.
Henderson Community Foundation provides donors of both modes and substantial means with a number of avenues to plant the seeds of philanthropy within our community. Whether you choose to support HCF by contributing to our Community Opportunities Fund, name your own fund or provide a lasting legacy through an endowment, we provide a multitude of valuable services that best address your needs.

Simplicity
One contribution can address a number of different needs, benefiting many charitable organizations. Once your fund is established, there is no separate tax return to file and no minimum distribution requirement. All grant paperwork, record keeping, accounting and government reporting are handled for you by HCF. It’s just that easy.

Personalized Service
Our board is available to answer your questions, identify community needs, connect you with nonprofits that meet your interests, and provide an ongoing source of support in helping you maximize your charitable objectives.

Tax Benefits
Contributions qualify for maximum deductions for income, gift and estate tax deduction and buy yourself time to decide what charitable causes you want to support in the months and years ahead.

Local Awareness
We’re local and governed by local community leaders. We’re not an 800 number; we’re your neighbors. Our trustees are notably knowledgeable about our community needs and resources.

Public Accountability
Annual audits, public disclosure of all grants and careful selection of board trustees assure continued use of funds in the public interest.

Permanence
Although conditions may change in our community, your gift of endowment will continue to benefit local residents now and in the future.

Recognition
Depending on your preference, HCF can recognize your generosity in our marketing efforts and correspondence with nonprofit grant recipients, or we can protect your desire for privacy by providing you complete anonymity.
You don’t have to be billionaire to give like one!

According to the December 2010 issue of Money Magazine there are seven “giving” strategies used by the uber-rich:

1. Concentrate on a few key causes.
2. Be business-like about giving.
3. Gather friends to commit to pledges and pool charitable resources.
4. Establish lasting legacies - give through estate planning.
5. Give away highly appreciated assets.
6. Have a fancy foundation.
7. Sit on non-profit boards.

Here’s how HCF can help...

1. Concentrate on a few key causes. HCF offers you the ability to make donations to a specific area of interest, health, education and/or quality of life. After all, making a bigger impact on a single cause can be more fulfilling and rewarding. HCF can even help connect you with charitable organizations that will meet your area of interest. We call it, “Giving Made Easy.”

2. Be business-like about giving. HCF is your “one-stop shop” for charitable giving. In fact, you can give today, receive your tax deduction and then decide later which qualified charitable causes you would like to support with grants. This allows you time for thoughtful research or even grant competition within your charitable areas of interest.

3. Gather friends to commit to pledges and pool charitable resources. HCF can help civic-minded individuals start a donor-advised fund, or HCF can accept payroll deductions from you and your co-workers - i.e. Levi Strauss & Company’s local community involvement team manages a donor advised fund. In the last two years, the Levi team has granted over $57,000 to deserving local charities through HCF.

4. Establish lasting legacies - give through estate planning. HCF can assist you in setting up an endowment where the interest is given to charities even after you’re no longer living. Or, HCF can direct you to an estate planner and you can bequest funds through your Will.

5. Give away highly appreciated assets. HCF has helped donor’s sell their assets on E-bay so the funds can be used charitably.

6. Have a fancy foundation. At HCF you don’t need to have a fancy foundation, we ARE your foundation and there are definitely advantages to not setting up a costly private foundation. It’s very simple: make a fully charitable contribution to HCF of as little as $5,000, name your fund (or remain anonymous), evaluate the needs of nonprofits you wish to support. Then, HCF reviews your grant recommendation for IRS compliance and HCF will send a grant check to the approved charity or you can even deliver it yourself.

7. Sit on non-profit boards. HCF is always looking for volunteers to help in a variety of areas. After all, charity is about more than just tax benefits. Give to your community just by simply giving your time!
Charitable Giving Vehicles

Henderson Community Foundation meets the changing needs of Southern Nevada through our discretionary and donor fund grantmaking. Some donors have created funds to support designated agencies, to provide scholarships to students, and to be used for grant awards subject to the approval of HCF’s Board of Trustees.

Other donors have established funds with a broader purpose or have entrusted HCF with unrestricted dollars to respond to the community’s current and evolving needs.

Through both types of grantmaking, HCF is able to change lives and transform communities.

Our Grant Distribution Committee, which includes Board members and knowledgeable community representatives, plans to continue making annual competitive grants targeted to critical community needs. Since our grantmaking inception, HCF has awarded over $30,000 to deserving critical programs that help our community.

HCF accepts many different kinds of gifts including cash, appreciated assets of securities and real estate, and planned gifts, just to name a few. We are available to help you learn about different giving options, including how to leave a legacy by including Henderson Community Foundation into your Will or estate plans.

Henderson Community Foundation will work with you to determine the best type of charitable fund to meet your needs and interests.
Charitable Fund Types

Donor Advised Funds offer you active participation by allowing you or your appointed advisors to recommend charitable organizations to benefit from your fund. You receive immediate tax benefits and can advise on grants for nonprofits you want to support over time.

Designated Funds allow you to identify a specific or multiple nonprofit organizations to receive support from your fund. Should that organization ever cease to exist or should its mission no longer agree with your interests, HCF will redirect the grant distributions to organizations with similar purposes.

Scholarship Funds provide deserving students with financial support for education they might not otherwise receive. Scholarships are designed with your specific interests in mind and you can define the guidelines for candidate selection and award use.

Agency Endowment Funds are established by nonprofit organizations as a means of protecting charitable dollars for the future. A nonprofit, whether large or small, can better spend its time pursuing its mission and fundraising, while leaving the management and investment of the fund up to HCF.

Field of Interest Funds allow you to support a broad area you care about most, such as healthcare, education, arts, the environment or any other areas that pique your interest. You specify the field and rely on HCF to identify local organizations that will make the greatest impact and help you meet our community’s most pressing needs.

Unrestricted Funds give you the opportunity to identify and respond to emerging and changing community needs. You place no restrictions on how your contribution is to be used, leaving those decisions to HCF.

Supporting Organizations (SOs) or Foundations are the equivalent of subsidiaries in the for-profit world. They are separate 501(c)(3) nonprofit organizations with their own board of directors, investment and grant making processes. SOs are an attractive, high-end alternative for individuals who have highly appreciated assets, want more legal control than a donor advised fund provides and want to avoid the administrative and financial burdens of a private foundation.

Operating Funds are established to support and sustain the core operations of HCF and help further its mission.

Deferred Gifts include bequests, pooled income funds, life estates, charitable lead trusts or charitable remainder trusts - all of which HCF can help you establish in partnership with your estate planning attorney, CPA or financial advisor.
Why HCF Instead of a Private Foundation?

Community foundations give donors benefits not available through private foundations. Unlike its cousin, the private foundation (whose financial base typically comes from a single donor, family or company), the Henderson Community Foundation garners its support from the public. It grows because individuals, corporations and even government entities and other nonprofits believe in it and help its continual growth year after year.

Henderson Community Foundation is an attractive alternative to establishing a private foundation. If you already have a private foundation in place, you may find it cost effective to transfer all or part of its assets to a new fund at HCF. Such funds, which retain the same name and purpose of the transferring entity, offer important investment advantages and welcome relief from time-consuming administrative tasks.

Ground Broken for NAIOP Casey Jones Health Center

BY TONY ILLIA

A deepening recession has sharply curtailed charitable contributions, especially among hard-hit real estate companies. Struggling for economic survival, companies are cutting costs and trimming staff. But members of the Southern Nevada chapter of NAIOP, a commercial real estate trade group, are still donating their time, money and resources toward the construction of the Casey Jones Health Center.

On Oct. 22, officials broke ground on the new 1,200 square-foot clinic at the 19 year-old Wynn Elementary School. The project is being valued at $250,000.

The clinic will offer free health care to approximately 5,000 students younger than 18. The clinic is part of the Communities in Schools of Nevada program, which offers free basic health care to underprivileged Clark County students. The project embodies the altruistic spirit of Rives “Casey” Jones III — a respected construction executive who served as NAIOP chapter president in 2005. Jones died at age 75 in 2006 after a two-month illness.

“Casey was one of our chapter’s most dedicated members,” said NAIOP Community Chairwoman Barbara Demaree of Southwest Gas Corp. “This facility was meant to honor him by providing resources to help needy children, many of whom live in a one-room apartment with eight people and have never seen a doctor.

Pugsley Simpson Coulter Architects designed the single-story, wood-framed, stucco-and-glass building on 4.38 acres. The clinic will provide immunizations, dental care and psychological consultation in three examination rooms. Crisci Builders is the general contractor; Wright engineering and Slater Hanifan Group are the engineers; Martin-Harris Construction is the owner’s representative. The project will finish in late January.
What will your legacy be?

All of us can leave an enduring mark on the charitable activities that we value. Your planned gift of any size will ensure that the Henderson Community Foundation has the ability to help our Henderson residents in areas that most strike compassion within you - like health, education, arts and culture, or quality of life. Planned gifts may be easily added to the Henderson Community Foundation’s endowment fund.

HCF can help you achieve your financial and philanthropic goals. There are a number of ways to give and we encourage you to explore your options with your advisors. The right plan can offer tax benefits, income for you and your family, and estate planning advantages, all the while supporting HCF’s mission to provide resources and support to improve the health, education, and quality of life in the Henderson community.

Leaving a bequest is easy. Just include the language in your will or estate planning instrument.

Here is a sample: “I give and bequeath to the Henderson Community Foundation for the benefit of charitable needs the sum of $_________________. This bequest is unrestricted and the Henderson Community Foundation’s Board of Trustees may use and expend the same for the benefit of Henderson Community Foundation in any manner it deems appropriate.”

Or, leave a percentage bequest with this sample language: “I direct that the Henderson Community Foundation shall receive ______ percent of my estate free and undiminished on account of any debts, expenses of administration, or death taxes. This bequest is unrestricted and the Henderson Community Foundation’s Board of Trustees may use and expend the same for the benefit of Henderson Community Foundation in any manner it deems appropriate.”

Or, if you prefer, you may leave a remainder bequest with this language: “I direct that the Henderson Community Foundation receive _____ percent of my net residuary estate after the payment of all my debts and the expenses of administration (other than death taxes). This bequest is unrestricted and the Henderson Community Foundation’s Board of Trustees may use and expend the same for the benefit of Henderson Community Foundation in any manner it deems appropriate.”

You may also designate that your gift be used for a specific area of interest, such as health, education, arts, or quality of life.

Should you have additional questions about leaving your legacy, please contact us and we can provide you with a list of local Estate Planning Advisors.
